

Housmans Peace Diary 2017

with World Peace Directory

This is the 64th edition of the Housmans Peace Diary, a non-profit service to movements around the world working for peace, social justice and the environment. This year's feature looks at surveillance and infiltration of peace groups and campaigning organisations by police and others, with examples from different eras – and at activists' success at overcoming these attacks.

The fully-revised Directory lists over 1500 national and international peace, environmental and human rights organisations. Pocket format, with a week to a view, the Diary includes notable dates and anniversaries, weekly quotes, calendars, a forward planner for 2018, and space for notes.
