

Housmans Peace Diary 2018

With World Peace Directory

This is the 65th edition of the Housmans Peace Diary, a non-profit service to movements around the world working for peace, social justice and the environment. This year's feature looks at anti-militarist approaches to the end of a war, how new movements and symbols emerged from WWI, and at a century of building reconciliation and resistance.

The fully-revised Directory lists nearly 1500 national and international peace, environmental and human rights organisations. Pocket format, with a week to a view, the Diary includes notable dates and anniversaries, weekly quotes, calendars, a forward planner for 2019, and space for notes.
